SOCIETY

The President will leave Beverly on Sunday night to keep his social engagements here on Monday afternoon for the third White House garden party of this month in honor of the delegates to the International Hygiene Congress.

The President will then return to Beverly and remain there until October 22. After that date he will visit Virginia Hot Springs, and from there the President will return to Ohio to cast his vote.

Gen. George Anderson, the Adjutant General of the Army, has taken the residence, 222 R Street Northwest, formerly occupied by Mrs. Tanner, widow of Rear Admiral Tanner, U. S. N. Mrs. Anderson has joined her husband, and their daughter, Miss Katherine Anderson, will return about October 1. She has been visiting friends in New England.

Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe has returned to Washington from his summer vacation at the Huron Mountain Club on Lake Superior. Mrs. Radcliffe is still visiting in Michigan.

The spacious drawing-room and dining hall of the Confederate Memorial Home, in Vermont Avenue, was the scene of a reception given by Mildred Lee Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, yesterday afternoon. The sixty or more children present were received by the juvenile officers of the society, who are Miss Virginia Hereford, president of the chapter; Master Stuart Murray, first vice president; Miss Nancy Weeks, recording secretary; Miss Helen Mead, corresponding secretary; Miss Edith Richter, treasurer. Each small guest was introduced to the receiving party by Master Gwynne Rust.

The entertainment was given under the auspices of the members of the local chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, through whose efforts the children's organization was recently formed, and Miss Frances Weeks, director of the children's chapter, assisted by Mrs. Mangus S. Thompson, honorary president of the division, was in charge. During the afternoon Gen. King, of this city, made a short address, which the children and their elder guests greatly enjoyed. Miss Edith Richter gave a song solo, "The Old Folks at Home," and then general dancing followed, the music being played by Miss Ralfe Bouldin, a member of the Stonewall Jackson Chapter.

At 5 o'clock refreshments were served by the children. A pretty feature of the afternoon was the playing of little Miss Elsie Richter, who rendered many well-known airs remarkably well, although her small hands could hardly be seen above the keyboard, she being but six years old. At the end of the reception Miss Bouldin struck up "Dixie," and as the military air sounded through the room every child stopped talking and joined in the song with great enthusiasm.

Justice Martin Augustus Knapp, of the Commerce Court, and Mrs. Knapp, having spent the summer months in New England, have returned to Washington and reopened their apartment at Stoneleigh Court.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. White, of 206 Sixteenth Street, have taken apartments at the Woodward for the winter, having recently disposed of their home.

Capt. I. S. K. Reeves, U. S. N., and Mrs. Reeves went to Baltimore on Thursday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Julia Ross Potter, daughter of the late Mr. William S. Potter and Mrs. Potter, and Mr. Maxwell Case, of New Castle, Del.

The sudden death of Mrs. Stanley Matthews, widow of Associate Justice Stanley Matthews, of the United States Supreme Court, will be a great shock to her many friends in this city. Mrs. Matthews left Washington early in the summer to spend the season in the Adirondacks and was then in her usual health.

Few women have been more prominent in Washington, both socially and in all charities, than she, and she will be sincerely mourned. Her husband was the scene of many delightful entertainments, for she was an ideal hostess, and her warm-hearted and charming manner endeared her to her friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. John B. Henderson, who has spent the summer at Bar Harbor, will return to Washington early next week. Justice and Mrs. Horace Lorton have returned to Washington from Hot Springs.

Former Senator John M. Thurston is ill at his apartment at the Wyoming. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Mrs. White, who spent their first summer in the Adirondacks, in the cabin at Saranac Inn, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland, are en route to Washington. They are making the trip by motor. They are now spending a day or two at the Curtis Hotel at Lenox, Mass.

It is rumored that Justice White will buy a place in the neighborhood of Lake Umbagog and erect a cottage as a permanent summer home. Mrs. George T. Mayne, who has spent the summer at Newport with her brother-in-law and sister, Mrs. Andrew M. Moreland, of Pittsburg, will sail for Europe this fall, accompanied by her niece, Miss Mary Moreland, who will enter a school abroad.

Baron Zwiedinek, charge d'affaires of Austria-Hungary, has returned to Bar Harbor after a brief visit in Washington.

Gov. Hughie Kernan, whose birthday is celebrated by the theatrical fraternity of the Capital with gusto, was the recipient of many hearty congratulations yesterday, the occasion being the twenty-sixth anniversary of the opening of the Lyceum Theater.

After the performance last night Mr. Kernan was the guest of the employees of the house at an informal supper on the stage. The affair was enlivened by entertainment contributed by the members of the company playing at the theater this week. At the conclusion of the supper, A. C. Mayer, general manager of the theater, paid warm tribute to Mr. Kernan, and at the close presented him with a beautiful silk charm, Mr. Kernan being a life member of the B. P. O. E.

J. C. Johnson, and M. T. Maloney, who have been associated with Mr. Kernan for years, were also presented with tokens of appreciation. They responded with much feeling. Among the guests at the supper were many business men of Washington, who told of visiting the theater in their boyhood days.

"Sophia" to Speak Here. The management of the Gospel Mission, 214-216 Four-and-a-half Street, has secured "Sophia the scrub woman," a unique character well known in mission circles in New York City, for a ten-day engagement, beginning to-night.

Tablets Will Be Cast From Metal of Maine

Acting Secretary Winthrop Asks Sculptors for Designs—Memorials Will Cost Applicants About $5.

Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop yesterday wrote to six sculptors in New York asking them to submit suggestions for the design of a memorial tablet to be cast from metal taken from the wreck of the battleship Maine. All the material taken from the Maine which was suitable for relics having been disposed of, there remains several thousand pounds of metal, including large quantities of brass and bronze. It is intended to melt this up and from the mass cast the tablets for which designs have been requested. It is estimated there is metal enough for about 1,200 such tablets, which probably will be about eighteen or twenty inches long and ten or twelve inches wide.

They will be given out to applicants in the order in which requests are received, the receivers of the tablets paying the cost of making the plates. It is believed this cost will be very small, probably considerably less than $5. Besides the ornamentation, the tablets will have inscribed on them the chief facts in the history of the Maine and the statement that they are composed of metal taken from the ship. The sculptors requested to submit designs, whose names were suggested by the Fine Arts Commission, are as follows: Sherry E. Fry, Carl A. Heber, Charles Keck, A. Piccirilli, Miss Evelyn B. Longman, and James E. Fraser, all of New York City.

A general committee of the Chamber of Commerce has yet to pass upon the subject, and it is the intention of the committee to go carefully into the subject before arriving at its decision.

MRS. "PAT" CAMPBELL BETTER.

London, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the famous actress, who has been seriously ill with peritonitis for several days, is reported to be on the road to recovery to-day. Her physicians state that, while she is not out of danger, Mrs. Campbell has taken a turn for the better and probably will recover. No one is allowed to see her, and the streets surrounding Kensington Square, her home, are still packed with straw to prevent the noises of traffic from disturbing her.

BROTHER IRVING ON THE MILLENNIUM

Disciple of House of David and His Spouse Entertain Street Crowds.

Brother Irving and Sister Ruth, disciples of the Israelite House of David, with headquarters at Benton Harbor, Mich., gave the first of their series of exhibitions last night before a large audience at the corner of Seventh Street and Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest. Sister Ruth started the ball rolling promptly at 7 o'clock by shouting to the passing throngs through a large megaphone.

Brother Irving told his audience that there were cloudy days ahead, and that beginning in the year 1917 there would be a period of war, pestilence, and plague. He said that, following these multitudinous troubles, the 1,000 years of peace on earth and good will toward man would gradually begin. Brother Irving believes that when the millennium is staged all of the seas will disappear, entering the earth via the terrestrial globes. He is of the belief that all of the fire in the earth will combine and form a huge blazing ball at the center of the globe, around which will flow all of the waters now in the five oceans.

"The result of this combination," declared Brother Irving, "will be a kind of moisture which will filter through the earth and convert the desert lands into like the rose and the arid lands will disappear."

After this little speech Sister Ruth took the stand and continued the argument. While one talked, the other passed through the audience distributing pamphlets on how to live forever.

Brother Irving, who is thirty-eight, and his young twenty-one-year-old spouse, Sister Ruth, will continue their lectures at 7 o'clock to-night and to-morrow night.
